Demolishment of the Jorgensen building next to Blum's on Ocean Avenue, brought forth a ghost of earlier Carmel days.

Fairly lettered on the exposed wall of the building housing Blum's can be seen the following sign, "Manzanita Hall Movies, Tuesdays and Saturdays."

This should bring back memories to residents who attended shows at Carmel's first movie palace.

The street department has a honey way of fixing cement street paving cracks. Tar to fill the crevices is poured from an old fashioned aluminum tea kettle.

City council reached an amicable compromise with Crescent Construction Company during its tree tour Tuesday afternoon. Crescent wanted to remove four pines at the property at Fifth and Santa Rita; council parlayed the request into removal of two trees, saving two, plus construction of a retaining wall to protect the replanted pines. Only other stops on the inspection tour were Vagabond House, where council approved re-fencing of a chalkrock wall with grapestakes and tabled a request for a landing zone, and a new motel at San Carlos near Fifth, where owner Lillian Catalan's request for an additional drive way was referred to the Street Department.

California Roadside Council congratulates Santa Cruz County and the State of Washington in its May bulletin.

"An act of goodwill is the decision of the Santa Cruz County Board of Supervisors to discontinue use of their signs, other than directional, in the neighboring County of Monterey. Four large signs are located in Monterey County on which the attractions of Santa Cruz County are portrayed. These signs are non-conforming under the zoning ordinance, which bans outdoor advertising from most rural roadside locations. Though non-conforming signs were to have been removed last July, they still remain, by reason of a court injunction. The Santa Cruz Supervisor, though legally entitled to continue their advertising while the injunction is in force, decided against doing so. When Monterey County is trying so hard to get rid of billboards, Supervisor Burton said, 'It doesn't seem right to force ours on her.'"

Under a heading, "Billboard-control Victory in Washington," the California Roadside Council comments in its bulletin: "The Washington State Legislature has enacted a bill applying the Federal Standards to its interstate and certain other highways. The bill has been signed by the governor, who had taken a strong stand in favor of its passage. For this victory, the Washington Roadside Council is to be most heartily congratulated. The WRC was the moving force behind the bill from its inception."

Carmel school children are enjoying the final installment of a belated "Easter vacation" today and tomorrow. The two-day holiday marks the end of the third quarter—and also the end of the experimental quarterly system. (Continued on Page Thirteen)

Mrs. Erma Zampatti shows some of the dolls she will talk about on Wednesday at Carmel Foundation Town House to Miss Blanche Tolmie, program chairman. Following the program, Mrs. Zampatti's many character dolls will join the crafts of other members of The Monterey Peninsula Senior Craftsmen at the Party Carousel Shop in the Truck Box Court, where they will reign at The Doll Festival during May. Mrs. Zampatti is a member of Puppets of Carmel and of the Carmel Crafts Guild.

Among the dolls Mrs. Zampatti will show at Town House is one from Rome which is over 200 years old. She is an avid collector as well as a creator of original and character dolls.

As a little girl Erma Zampatti made dolls and doll clothes for neighborhood children, but her parents thought she was too old at 15 "to play with dolls." However, at 18 she created Jack the Jigger, traded her rag dolls for antique dolls for her collection and has been running doll hospitals, making dolls and puppets ever since.

City Owns Over $3 Million Worth Of Land And Equipment

The City of Carmel owns lands and structures worth $3,198,500, and equipment with an original cost value of $159,414 and a replacement cost value of $42,165.

An inventory of the city's physical assets, which took some two years to prepare, was presented before the city council Wednesday evening by Larry Rose, clerk-controller.

On the list of 16 separate pieces of property owned by the city are the corporation yard at Junipero and Fourth, the Youth Center, five house city hall, police station, corporation yard at Torres and Fourth, the parking lot on Dolores at Fifth, Devendorf plaza park site at Ocean, Mission and Junipero, the forest theater, sand dune and beach property, a park site at Forest and Mountain View, tennis courts, another park site at Mission and First, and Flanigan Memorial. Carmel's John Farr To Be A Soloist With Symphony

John Farr, who has literally been an instrumental part of the Monterey County Symphony since here twenty years ago, will be one of four soloists to be featured in a performance of Mozart's Vesperae Solemnnes de Confessore at the symphony's final concert of the season, May 16 at Sunset Auditorium.

Farr, music director at Carmel High School, was one of a group of county music educators who first conceived and organized the orchestra in the spring of 1941. Since then, Farr has served on the symphony's board of directors, helped to stage the symphony concerts, and regularly performed as a member of the orchestra's horn section.

In open auditions held earlier this Spring by Symphony conductor Ronald Ondrejka, Farr's baritone voice won him a solo role for the May 16 concert. Over a score of singers from all parts of Monterey County, and several from neighboring counties, tried out for the parts. Other soloists selected by Ondrejka are soprano Norma Jean Scott of Pacific Grove, mezzo-soprano Carol Brith and tenor Larry Swanson, both of Watsonville.

The forthcoming concert will mark Farr's second solo appearance with the orchestra; he recalls that he rendered Tchaikovsky's Pagan Song in one of the symphony's early concerts. Farr has also been heard as soloist in local performances of Handel's Messiah and in several recitals, and has (Continued on Page Sixteen)

4c Bed Tax Would Yield City $65,376

A proposed 4 per cent motel-hotel bed tax which could net the City of Carmel a $65,376 annual revenue was outlined by City Clerk Larry Rose last night in a detailed report accepted by the Carmel City Council.

Motel-hotel interests were heavily represented in the council chamber audience which heard the Rose report, which had been requested by the council last month and which was based on 1960 figures showing the city has some 821 transient rental units in its four hotels and 43 motels.

The tax figure was projected by using a $9 per night estimated average rental and a figure of 65 per cent average occupancy. The present $5 per year per room flat rate tax brings only $4,106 per year. Direct cost of administering the proposed new tax was figured at $640.

A joint, informal meeting for councilmen with the hostellers of Carmel was set for 8:00 o'clock in the evening on May 24. Two of the visiting owners who addressed the council briefly last night and were urged to return to the May 24 meeting were Carmel hotelman Ashton Stanley and William Setton, chairman of the Carmel Motel Association.

The owners and managers in general regard the rental unit tax with disfavor. Included in the report, but not figured into the tax figure were the city's eight apartments and 40 lodgings in private dwellings under lodging permit. No recommendation has been made about whether these can or should be made subject to taxation under the new proposal.

Acting on another problem which has come before the council in various guises in recent months, councilmen again sustained an action of the Carmel Planning Commission denying a request of William Neumann.

Neumann, represented at last night's meeting by his attorney Don Smith, was apparently seeking rezoning of his property on Junipero, now in a residential area, so that he could construct an apartment, or apartment-like building. He had been turned down on his apartment plans last March by both commission and council, and more recently returned with plans for a "single family residence" which was also turned down in plan as being singularly unlike a single residence and more like a multiple dwelling.

Last night the attorney admitted the "single unit" plan had been a "subterfuge," but argued that his client's problem remains substantially the same, and asked that he be placed in an "interim" zone, neither C-2, nor R-1, but in a kind of no-man's-land between. Otherwise, the feeling seemed to be, Mr. Neumann's property will be valueless to him.

The council again quickly took their stand of "caveat emptor" on Mr. Neumann, and denied the appeal. With a view to promoting sale (Continued on Page Sixteen)

Board Increases Adult School Fees From $1.00 To $5.00

Last night the Carmel Unified School District Board increased the adult education registration fee from $1.00 to $5.00 per class for the fall and winter semesters, and to $3.00 for the summer classes.

Driver education fee will be $15. There will be no charge for courses in citizenship and English for new Americans since legally fees may not be collected for these courses. Individual and Family Survival, a course paid for by the federal government, will also be fee-free. Fee for Bach Chorus and Symphony classes will continue to be $1.00 since their large enrollment more than pays their way through state ADA contribution.

Cost of operating adult school from June to June 1960-61 will be $46,518.00. Income from fees and state contribution (ADA) amounts to $23,424.50, which leaves $23,424.50 to be paid out of school district taxes, or five cents out of $2.15 basic tax for school operation, which does not include overtime tax, bond issues and various special purpose levies, such as the 10 cents recreation program tax.

Increase in fees is estimated to bring in an additional $8,000 which represents two cents per $100 assessed valuation, and will be used to bolster the day school budget.

The $5.00 fee, proposed by Mrs. Adrian Bennett, had an unenthusiastic reception by Dr. Grant Fletcher and Dr. Richard Snyder at the April board meeting. Last night, when George Yates proposed a $10.00 fee, Fletcher and Snyder accepted the lesser of two evils.

Other board business included appointment of Mrs. Roderick Wilson and reappointment of Lou Gardner for two year terms on the school district's recreation program commission.

FIRST AID CLASS

An advanced first aid class will be given at the Carmel Chapter House of the American Red Cross starting on May 11, 7:30 - 9:30 o'clock in the evening. The class is open to all holders of Standard First Aid Certificates dated May, 1958, or later. Holders of advanced certificates of the same period are eligible for an advanced refresher course in June, according to Margaret W. Barnes, D.O., first aid chairman.

To register for the course telephone MA 4-6921.

CARMEL LITTLE LEAGUE OFF TO GOOD START

From the opening ceremonies to the final out of the Sport Shop-Turner & McEldowney game later in the day, the Carmel Little League opening was a huge success with plenty of fans, healthy enthusiasm, and outstanding displays of good sportsmanship. With P. A. McCreery, President of the Youth Center Board, Mayor Frank Putnam, and Sergeant Del Wer-muth, as the pitcher, batter, catcher respectively, the opening act got the league off to a good start and set the stage for an enjoyable day. McCreery showed the poise and polish of a big league pitcher as he took the signs from Wer-muth and buzzed the ball past and behind the bewildered Putnam. The mayor was going for the fences when he took his cuts but he found the distances a little far as he tapped back to the mound. With the amateur performers out of the way, the Little League vets were ready to take over as Umpire Howard Baxter gave the word to get the action underway.

In the opening game, a fine pitching performance by Larry Little paced the San Carlos Realty to a 4-0 win over Art Carpenter's Pilot Market gang. Little set the 1960 Champs down with four hits and had game control all the way. His mates gave him excellent support in the field and collected the hits when they were needed. Terry Mosolf and Rob Farrell teamed up to pitch a six-hitter for the grocers but had streaks of wildness which kept them in hot water. Farrell, a stocky lefthander, struck out eight in three innings and showed plenty of zip on his fast ball. Jim Sparolini, San Carlos third-sacker, was the top hitter of the game, stroking three-for-three and scoring two runs. Ronnie Parsons, Terry Mo-self, Mike Spowart, and Bob Gamble were the only Pilot swingers to solve Little's offerings.

The Wilder & Jones gang know how the Milwaukee Braves felt when the Giants clubbed them last Sunday as the hard-hitting Boys' Town crew powered by them, 20 to 9, in an old-fashioned slugfest. The clothiers rapped out 16 hits and the plumbers got nine to keep the basepaths pretty well clogged during the entire game. Richard Olson pitched the win for Boys' Town with Hart Silverie receipting for the loss. Big blow for the winners was Gerald Pullen's booming home run. Jack Argust, Mark Snopkowski, and Olson each collected three hits for Boys' Town. Ed Kawanankoa was the top hitter for the losers, getting a pair of singles in two trips to the plate. Brad Jones also stroked a pair of solo blows in four times at bat.

A sterling pitching duel between Gary Kearns of Sport Shop and Brian McEldowney of T&M finished with Kearns' hand being raised in victory. Kearns tossed a one-hitter at the bricklayers while McEldowney scattered three hits for the Sports. Jerry Efik was the only T&M swinger to basehit Kearns while Paul Culver, Mel Grimes, and Louis Shone connected safely off McEldowney. Kearns struck out 12 T&M batters and McEldowney set down a like number via the strikeout route.

Monday night's Little League game was postponed until later in the season, but action was resumed Tuesday with Pilot Market out-scoring Turner & McEldowney, 14 to four. The grocers put together a big inning in the fourth frame as they tallied eight runs to put the game out of reach. Although the winners were held to five hits, a dozen free passes saw Pilot runners on the bags throughout the game. Kevin Hale, Scott Lemons, and Ronnie Parsons collaborated to pitch the win with Chris Chomiak and Brian McEldowney tossing them over for the losers. Ronnie Parsons hit two-for-three to lead the grocer hitters while Jerry Erk and Chomiak got the only hit for T&M.

Tonight's Little League schedule matches Turner & McEldowney with Boys' Town and Friday night's fare has Pilot Market crossing bats with Wilder & Jones. All Little League games start at 6:00 o'clock.

PADRE NINE CLIPS HOLLISTER, 18 TO 1

Coming out of a prolonged batting slump, Carmel High's varsity baseball team had a field day at the expense of Hollister hurling Tuesday afternoon and overpowered the Haybalers, 18 to 1, in an abbreviated five-inning game. After receiving the same type of treatment from the power-packed Live Oak team last Friday, Tuesday's comeback was particularly satisfying to the hard-trying Padre nine. Big blow of the 14-hit Carmel attack was Bud Cunningham's four-master with two aboard in (Continued on Page Seven)

Art On The Peninsula

A new show opened yesterday at the Carmel Art Association Galleries. Chairman of the show's hanging committee was Edith Din-kin. She was assisted by Fred Klepich, Richard Lofton, Cush Walker, J. B. Morse, Charles Thomas, Gus Velletri, Valerio Gi-usi and Marjorie Allen.

Brett Weston, second son of the late internationally known photo-grapher, Edward Weston of Carmel Highlands, will show his photographs on the Peninsula for the first time since 1948, when he shared a Pat Wall Gallery exhibi-tion with his father and his brother, Cole Weston. The Brett Weston show will open in the Monterey Peninsula College library gallery on May 15 and continue on display through May 26. The exhibition will be open to the public without charge.

Mr. Weston recently returned from a photographic tour of 15 European countries. He has selected a cross-section of his black and white prints for the MPC show, also two large color prints of the type he is sending to the Metro-politan Museum's Photography in the Fine Arts exhibition in New York later this year.

He will also have a 300-print show at George Eastman House, Rochester, New York, next year.

Brett Weston was born in 1911. Thirteen years later he went to Mexico with his father. Of his son's photographic work at this time Edward Weston wrote, "He is doing better work at 14 than I did at 30."

Mr. Weston had his first major one-man show at the M. H. de-Young Museum in San Francisco in 1932. He had already exhibited at the Jake Zeitlin Gallery in New York. Since then he has had shows from coast to coast and abroad, some of them often running simul-taneously.

Among owners of his prints are Princeton University Library, The San Francisco Museum, the Mu-seum of Modern Art, in New York, the Los Angeles Museum, George Eastman House, Chicago Art In-stitute and the University of Indiana.

Legal Action Pending To Settle Status Of Church Of Wayfarer

An uneasy truce between membership of the Church of the Wayfarer, its pastor K. Fillmore Gray, and the Methodist Conference followed a jam-packed meeting at the parish hall Monday night at which it was announced that the Methodists will file legal action in superior court to determine the status of the 57-year-old church.

Members present voted 153 to 96 to take no action on the future relationship of Dr. Gray with the Church for a year, or until a legal decision is handed down deciding whether the Wayfarer is, as its executive committee claims, a non-denominational community church, or a Methodist church. Herbert W. Neale of San Jose, district superintendent of the Methodist Conference, contends that the property on which the church was founded in 1904 was deeded in trust "for the use and benefit of the ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church".

Monday's special meeting was called by Wayfarer executive committee president Harold C. Green. Eugene Harrah, named counsel for the committee in the dispute with the Methodists, announced word of the legal proceedings to be undertaken by the Conference, and also noted that a meeting previously scheduled for tonight by Mr.

Neale and Dr. Gray—at which Dr. Gray was to have offered nominations for new church officers and committee members—had been cancelled. Harrah said yesterday that he expects suit to be filed "fairly soon" by the San Francisco law firm representing the Methodist Conference.

LEGION ELECTS OFFICERS

Commander Paul T. Artellan, vice-commanders Frank Girard and Frank Shannon, and adjutant Fabian Era were re-elected by acclamation at Monday's meeting of the Carmel Legion Post 512. New officers elected for 1961-62 were Robert Morrisseau, finance; Dennis Narvaez and John Chitwood, assistant adjutants; Kerman Alderson, chaplain; Dick Zimmerman, historian; Alvin Chapin, sergeant at arms; Willie Myers, assistant sergeant at arms. James Kelsey was re-elected judge advocate and also to the executive committee, along with Zimmerman and Chitwood; newly elected to the committee are Chapin and Dick Hendricks. Officers will be sworn in at a joint installation with Seaside and Salinas posts in June.

Music On The Peninsula

BY MARY LINDSAY-OLIVER

The fourth Sunday concert of the Musica Viva series of The Institute of Theatre Arts was a recital by San Francisco pianist Timothy Thompson, recent winner of the San Francisco Symphony Association's award and of Tanglewood in the East. He is also a composer whose ballet was given by the San Francisco Ballet company ten days ago. It was therefore with regret that I had to leave at intermission and miss his suite for piano, but heard enough to report that here is a young pianist with a thoroughly musical temperament not too often found in these days of spectacular piano pounding. Thompson's sensitive feeling and comprehension of the moods of the composer, and his meaningful manipulation of phrases, contours, dynamics and silent pauses marked him as a musician of the first order. This was especially evident in his playing of the Beethoven Sonata 17 No. 2 in which he seemed to feel Beethoven profoundly, as few do.

A Mozart Minuet and Gigue, and a Stravinsky Sonata comprised the first half of the program, while his own Suite, a Chopin Scherzo and Etude, and the Liszt Sixth Hungarian Rhapsody, the second half.

These concerts planned by Axel Duwe have been just the right length so far. The stage setting now has been made attractive and a playable piano was lent by Mrs. Charles Trumbly who is always a good friend to musicians. The concert next Sunday brings back pianist Thompson with Roger Torry, a trumpeter, Alan Johnson, clarinetist, and Fei Pang Ching, and includes ensembles by Brahms and Hindemith.

At the Monterey College last Friday, Lenoir Hosack who formerly lived in this locality sang a program of works by Rossini, Schumann's lieder cycle Frauenliebe und Leben, Respighi, Ravel and Poulenc presented by the Music Department. Her performances in the Bach Festival and with the Monterey Symphony Orchestra were remembered by many who went to hear her. Gifted with a mezzo-soprano voice of considerable range, and a temperament for dramatics, her intense feeling should have created more excellent results, except for a habit of fixing her head forward and down which probably caused muscular tension at the back of the neck and inhibited the easiest flow of tone. Nevertheless, Hosack gave much pleasure to her audience with her musical sense and encores that included another lieder for which her voice is thoroughly suited. Eleanor Michaels, her accompanist, though a capable pianist, would have done better to modulate than predominate which did not always help the singer. Both were greeted and praised personally by most of the audience afterwards.

The San Francisco Spring Opera, presenting La Boheme on Friday, at the Memorial Opera House, will be conducted by Sandor Salgo, the popular director of the Carmel Bach Festival and will include the young tenor, George Shirley, winner this year of the Metropolitan Opera Auditions.

Local Council Host For World Affairs Asilomar Conference

The World Affairs Council of the Monterey Peninsula will be host for the 15th Annual Conference of the World Affairs Council of Northern California which opens its three-day session on The Americas—From Neighbors to Partners at Asilomar tomorrow.

The general coordinator of the local Council's conference activities is S. Fletcher Dutton, president.

A welcoming reception and tea is planned for tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Mrs. Archer Allen as chairman and Mrs. S. Fletcher Dutton as assistant chairman. Those pouring at the tea will be Mrs. David Gill, Mrs. Charles P. McHarry, Mrs. L. W. Klene, Mrs. Walter Lehmann, Mrs. R. A. Spruance, Mrs. C. Tod Singleton, Mrs. Florence B. Elliott and Mrs. Paul Gilebe. Hostesses will include Mrs. Howard Bruggeman, Mrs. Dudley Swim, Mrs. C. A. Broadus, Mrs. C. King Benton, Mrs. Frank Ringland, Mrs. Hans Von Richter, Mrs. A. Bland Calder, Mrs. Douglas Carter and Miss Augusta DeForest.

Merrill Hall will be decorated by a committee headed by Colonel C. A. DeCamp. Assisting him will be Mrs. C. Tod Singleton, Miss Joy DeCamp and Mrs. James H. Lee. Mr. Stanley Oakes will be in charge of transportation for visiting dignitaries and speakers. Mrs. William Eklund will create flower arrangements for the speakers' rooms; secretarial assistance will be provided by Mrs. Shirley R. Turner.

Twenty-six scholarships were presented by the Peninsula Council entitling winners to free admittance to all meetings of the conference and a year's membership in the Council. Selection of candidates was based on interest in world affairs, leadership in school activities and scholarship. Dr. Reuben Johnson and Hans Von Richter acted as a committee in making the selections. Funds for the scholarships were raised by a scholarship dinner, under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. Tod Singleton, held last December.

the fourth heat. The slender first-baseman picked on a fast ball and sent it far over the left field fence for the initial Carmel home run of the season. Mike Taylor also put on a good offensive show, collecting three hits and tallying three runs.

The Padres got off to a fast start in the first inning when they pushed across 3 runs on a pair of walks and base hits by Bob Little and Evan Peskin. Peskin's well-hit double drove in a pair of tallies and set the stage for the third Carmel run of the inning. With Chris Wilkin breezing along with a nifty one-hitter, his teammates got behind him in good fashion in the fourth inning, scoring nine times and using up three Haybaler hurlers. Forrest Cornwall hurled the final inning for the Padres, setting the Haybalers down without a hit and striking out a pair.

Fine fielding plays by Lindy Mahrt, David Harber, and Evan Peskin served to throttle the Haybaler attack and make the going easy for the Carmel pitchers. The strong-armed Harber cut down the only Hollister runner who tried to steal a base and did a workmanlike job of catching the swift-throwing Wilkin.

The Padres start second round play in the CCAL B-division race next Tuesday afternoon when the Gilroy Mustangs invade the Carmel diamond.

Carmel's junior-varsity crew lost its first league game of the season Monday afternoon, bowing to the Hollister jayvees, five to four, in a fast well-played game. The game was deadlocked most of the way but the hosts broke the tie in the bottom of the sixth and hung on for the win. Steve Johnson and Bob Holmes teamed up to pitch a four-hitter at the winners and both freshman showed good stuff in the losing effort. Big hitters for the Little Padres were Dave Maher, Al Tegtmeier, Stan Cummings, Mike Brasher, and Mat Little while top fielding jobs were turned in by Jack DeWitt and Tegtmeier.

OLD BIRD SERIES RACES

The Carmel - Monterey - Seaside Racing Pigeon Club held their fourth race of the Old Bird Series on Sunday from Lovelock, Nevada, a distance of approximately 300 air miles. The birds were released at 7:00 o'clock in the morning.

Following are the results in yards per minute: M. Hanssens, Carmel Valley, 1159.453; E. Barry, Monterey, 1157.928; G. Artellan, Carmel Highlands, 1152.630; J. Barbier, Salinas, 1152.066; H. Jones, Seaside, 1144.411; E. Anderson, Del Rey Oaks, 1110.715; Mack & Son, Salinas, 1110.715; J. Scott, Carmel Valley, 1084.516; C. Souza, Seaside; no report.

The next race will be flown from Inlay, Nevada, on Sunday. This race will be the Yearling Special.

CARMEL GOLF SQUAD UNDEFEATED

Coach Fred Rainer's Carmel High golf team has been setting a blistering pace in CCAL play so far this season, winning all its matches and upsetting several teams which were favored to beat the sophomore-studded squad. Playing most of its matches at Pebble Beach, the Padre squad has found the practice course to its liking in the league matches and has all five players stroking in the high seventies.

Pacific Grove was favored to cop the CCAL golf title this season but the hard-working Carmel gang failed to read the press clippings and trounced the smooth-swinging Breaker squad. When Monterey High made a run for the title the Padres turned in their best effort to run away from the Toreadores. Watsonville was also considered a sound threat for the title but the Wildcats were also turned back by the Carmel lads.

Taking their swings on the Carmel golf squad are senior Brook Scherman and sophomores Greg Scheid, Dan Holman, Jerry Lefler, and Roger Merrill.

MONTEREY HIGH SWIM TEAM SWAMPS PADRES

About as expected, the strong Monterey High swim team packed too much power for Jim Agan's Carmel High gang and splashed to easy victories in both the lightweight and varsity divisions. The Toreadores put on a powerful swimming display at the Carmel High pool last Tuesday and must certainly be the favorites to cop the CCAL title.

The Monterey varsity rolled up 58 points to 36 for the Padres while the Monterey lightweights finished in front, 53 to 32. Carmel salvaged three first places in the varsity division, winning the 200 freestyle relay (Doyle Clayton, Bob Wells, Art Horning, Tom Farrell); the 100-yard backstroke (Art Horning); and the 100-yard freestyle (Tom Farrell). The 200-yard relay crew set a new school record when it turned in a 1:45.9 performance to win the event.

Winners for the Carmel lights were Jeff Porter, 50-yard butterfly; Al Nishimura, 100-yard backstroke and individual medley; and Maynard Peterson in the 100-yard freestyle.

Adding to the point total in the varsity division were Padres Milton Frumkin, third 400-yard freestyle; Bob Albee, second 100-yard butterfly; Steve Harth, third 100-yard freestyle; and John Hackbarth, second 100-yard breaststroke.

Other point-makers for the Padre Babes were Jim Holt, second 200-yard freestyle; Bruce Campbell, second 50-yard freestyle; Mike Paul, third 50 free; Terry Matney, third 100-yard backstroke; Pete Gamble, second 100-yard breaststroke; and Ron Berry, third 100-yard freestyle. Terry Matney, Harold Johnson, Jeff Porter, and Pete Gamble copped the 200-yard freestyle relay.

Plenty of competition ahead for the Carmel splashers this Saturday morning when they travel to North Salinas High for the CCAL Meet. In the big league meet, Monterey is favored to win the varsity division while the Watsonville Wildcats appear to have the top hand in the lightweight class.

FROM A
LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg

The April issue of the California Librarian arrived this morning and the lead article was written by novelist Guy Endore. Not only is it done with a delicate feeling for just the right word, but his cheerful praise for libraries is so heart-warming as to deserve a little quoting. He says that when he was given a library card, "It was like handing me the key to a treasure house. . . . In comparison Fort Knox is nothing but a lot of yellow metal good for fobs and bangles. When I hear about the drain on our gold reserves, I am strangely untroubled. You don't find me rushing to the newspaper with a letter. It would be otherwise should I hear that our libraries were being drained of their treasures. I'd scream about that.

"Open any book at random, and all that was ever alive, all that has ever left a memorial of itself, springs back into existence. It may well be that there is another immortality, a divine immortality, but in view of the little we know about it, I will hold to the only immortality that man can give himself: a book on a library shelf. That is perhaps why, when I am down there in the vitals of a library, I am always overcome with a kind of religious feeling. A feeling of awe: that there should be so many books whose contents I shall never know; and at the same time a feeling of exaltation that all is here for me to sample at will."

Librarians will tell you that this religious feeling experienced while working, or reading alone in a library is a common occurrence. It is lost in the bustle and stress of a busy day, but it returns when a librarian goes quietly into a closed library and works there with the thoughts of a whole world arranged around her on the shelves. It is a time when the worker feels very small and very humble.

This library has recently lost two good friends. The first to go was Mr. Talbert Josselyn, whom none of us will ever forget. There was a kindness to him that few have, but many envy. Even when he was castigating the unwelcome changes in Carmel and the over-supply of tourists, he had a smile and a small joke, by which he brought the listener with him into the enjoyment of the old days, and the regretful acceptance of the new. Then there was Mr. Austin James, always smiling, always with a new joke to tell. Some years ago, before this library had chairs for the balcony, he brought his own chair from home, and sat in it for hours, watching the people go by and leaning over the balcony rail to discuss with passersby whatever needed discussing. A copy of the portrait bust of Millikan which Austin James did is in our reading room, one of the most pleasing art works this library possesses. The original is in the Sorbonne. Surely the works of Talbert Josselyn should be collected and published in a volume for after all his years of writing, his name does

Harvey Rutledge

Harvey Holbert Rutledge was found dead on Saturday in his home on Lincoln Street near Third Avenue, apparently from a self-inflicted shotgun wound in the stomach, according to the county coroner's office. He was a gardener who had lived in Carmel for four years.

Mr. Rutledge was born on March 7, 1907, in Texas. He moved to California in 1942.

Survivors include a son, Lincoln Rutledge, and a stepson, David Gilbert, both of Carmel; three sisters, Mrs. Lelah Elord of Graton, Mrs. Easter Heppard of Bakersfield and Mrs. Ada Aires, who lives in the East; four brothers, Ris S. Rutledge of Sebastopol, A. N. Rutledge of Oklahoma, Lloyd Rutledge of Oceana and Albert Rutledge of Santa Rosa; also several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Tuesday in the Paul Funeral Chapel with Dr. K. Fillmore Gray, pastor of the Church of the Wayfarer, officiating. Interment followed in the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea.

The old order changes, but sometimes it seems to us that the new is not so rich or rewarding.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

The immortal status of the children of God will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday in a Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Mortals and Immortals."

Scriptural selections will include the following from Romans (8): "For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God. . . . The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God."

A correlative passage to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (p. 519): "Human capacity is slow to discern and to grasp God's creation and the divine power and presence which go with it, demonstrating its spiritual origin. Mortals can never know the infinite, until they throw off the old man and reach the spiritual image and likeness."

Suzanne Pilot Weds May 14

Wedding plans were announced this week by Suzanne Pilot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walt Pilot of Carmel.

At 4:00 o'clock on Sunday, May 14, Suzanne and Martin Luther Forster will exchange vows in a ceremony at the Church of the Wayfarer before a small group of family members and close friends; Dr. K. Fillmore Gray will officiate. The wedding reception will take place at the Pilot home at Ocean Avenue and Highway One.

Suzanne and her fiancé met last summer at Big Sur State Park, where Mr. Forster is a ranger for the State Department of Parks and Beaches; Suzanne at the time was working as lifeguard at the park's swimming pool. The Forsters will make their home in Big Sur following the wedding and a honeymoon trip to Canada, where both have relatives.

Suzanne has named her twelve-year-old sister, Cindy, as bridal attendant at her wedding. Standing with the groom will be his brother, Donald Forster of Bakersfield. Suzanne will be given in marriage by her father.

Among those to be present at the wedding are the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Forster of Santa Rosa; the bride's brother, Walter, a student at Carmel High; her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McCaman of Seaside, and an uncle, LeEarl McCaman of Marina. Several relatives of Suzanne and her fiancé from Canada and the East are also expected.

The bride-elect attended Sunset School and was a 1958 honor graduate of Carmel High. Following her graduation she traveled throughout California as a state officer of the Rainbow Girls, and subsequently studied for two years at Monterey Peninsula College.

Mr. Forster attended Ventura College and served for two years with the Army in Germany before entering his present work with the state. He has been stationed at Big Sur State Park for the past five years.

The young couple announced their engagement last month at a surprise birthday party given for Suzanne's mother.

CHS Graduates Engaged

The engagement of Sue Elaine Henderson and Richard Manuel Muniz, Jr., was announced this week by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Henderson of Hatton Road and Third Street.

Both Sue and her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Muniz of Pacific Grove, are 1959 graduates of Carmel High School. Richard is currently stationed with the Navy at Vallejo, having just returned from a year's duty in Korea. The wedding will take place after he completes his Navy service early next year.

Sue is presently a sophomore at Monterey Peninsula College, where Dick also studied prior to joining the Navy. She has one sister, Kathleen, a senior at Carmel High. Sue is the granddaughter of Fred Knuth of Carmel and the late Mrs. Knuth, and of the Roy Hendersons of Allegan, Michigan.

Carmel High Teachers Wed

Two popular members of the Carmel High School faculty, the former Antoinette May Angle and Albert Duane Graham, were quietly married last evening in the Carmel Presbyterian Church.

The Reverend Joseph Ewing officiated at the ceremony, in the presence of close family members of the bride and groom.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Graham are both instructors in the science department at the high school, and plan to continue teaching there next year. However, the honeymoon will be deferred until summer vacation, when they plan a trip to Canada.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Angle of Placencia, Orange County, and was graduated from the University of California in Berkeley. This is her first year of teaching at Carmel High. Mr. Graham, son of Kenneth M. Graham of Carmel and the late Mrs. Graham, is a graduate of the U.C. Agricultural College at Davis, and has taught here for the past three years.

The Grahams are making their home in Carmel, and will be back in their adjoining classrooms next week.

The dunes property alone was appraised at $1,050,000 and the library site at $250,000. City Hall appraisal figure was $125,000, and the Junipero corporation yards $275,000.

The inventory resulted from adoption by the City Council in 1959 a section of the Municipal Code requiring such an inventory for use of the council and information of the public.

Rose said the inventory would be revised annually from now on.

trial use of a redwood sign, with letters carved or routed out and painted yellow. The side of the sign faced away from the beach will contain two somewhat disparate messages: "Surf Unsafe, Rip-tides and Undertow," and under that, "Help Keep Our Beach Clean." The side facing the ocean will say, "Littering Beach Prohibited. $500 Fine."

Councilmen happily authorized a project of the Recreation Committee for park development at the city's First and Mission street site, a program which is also receiving the attention and financial backing of Carmel Rotarians.

A report from the Lands and Improvements committee was accepted by the council recommending use of Police Department facilities as the present municipal disaster center, should the need arise, and that a Civil Defense control center be incorporated in plans for a new city hall at Fourth and Tress streets, for which the city could qualify for use of federal funds.

Councilman Norberg, who had originally asked a study of locations for such a disaster center, objected that the report "begs the question because we may need a disaster center tomorrow and the report refers to a piece of geography only and a city hall which may never be built."

Toward the end of the agenda, Mayor Frank Putnam strayed from his usual position as a "non-proclaiming" mayor long enough to proclaim May 19 Armed Forces Day.

But prior to this he brightened everyone's evening by reading the form letter he usually sends to requestors of mayorial proclamations, a document that for sheer tact rivals the famous though spurious letter of Mr. Lincoln to Mrs. Bixby.

"Dear Blank," the letter goes. "I am delighted to be called upon with regard to your plans for Blank Week. However..."

Councilman Whittlesey commented that with a schedule so crowded and the hour so late, there was nothing he'd rather contemplate than a "blank week."

Among other action taken by the council last night:

A budget was established for Forest Theater Sundays at $100 for incidental expenses and the council moved to appropriate $83 from its contingency fund to supplement the program's treasury this season.

A request from Goodwill Industries for installation of collection boxes in the city was denied "with no reflection whatever on the worth of the project" but because the 4x4x8 boxes don't fit with Carmel decor.

The Golden Bough Circle Theatre, which had asked council permission to place a directional sign at Casanova and Ocean Avenue, was directed to apply through regular channels for a use permit.

Cole Weston's request for use of the Forest Theater this summer was extended through August and Labor Day weekend since no other applicants were forthcoming.

The council also approved renegotiation of the garbage collec-

ASIA EXPERT TO SPEAK

Commentator and Asia expert Felix Greene will present the first of three first-hand, eyewitness reports on Red China tomorrow night at 8:00 o'clock in the library lecture hall at Monterey Peninsula College.

A former BBC official and radio news commentator who now makes his home in California, Greene recently returned from an extensive tour inside Red China, where he visited schools, colleges, factories and collective farms as well as major cities, and conferred with Chinese government officials and diplomatic representatives of several western nations.

Greene's unique experiences and knowledge will be reflected in his three lectures, entitled The United States and Red China, part of MPC's "Critique III" series. Subsequent lectures by Greene will take place on May 12 and 19. The public is invited to attend without charge, but due to limited seating in the lecture hall, only the first 200 arrivals will be admitted.
